ITEMS NOT ON THE AGENDA:

Jackie Johns asked about the RKL audit of the Police Commission funds. Lehman said a response is expected any day after he detailed the stalling and jockeying amongst Conestoga Township supervisors, lawyers and Chairman Lehman which are adding to legal costs. If the issue cannot be resolved via lawyers, the suit will go to court.

Chairman Lehman explained that when funds are received, supposedly $522,000, they will be placed in a special interest bearing account. However, money is only to be spent on Covid related expenses incurred by the Township.
